

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT FLORIDA

JOSE GLEN RODRIGUEZ, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

CLASS ACTION

Case No.

Plaintiff,

vs.

SMILEDIRECTCLUB, LLC,

Defendant.

CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

1. Plaintiff, Jose Glen Rodriguez (“Plaintiff”), brings this action against Defendant, SmileDirectClub, LLC (“Defendant”), to secure redress for violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”), 47 U.S.C. § 227.

NATURE OF THE ACTION

2. This is a putative class action pursuant to the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227 et seq., (the “TCPA”).

3. Defendant is a publicly traded orthodontic device company that sells tooth alignment products to consumers.

4. Through this action, Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief to halt Defendant’s illegal conduct, which has resulted in the invasion of privacy, harassment, aggravation, and disruption of the daily life of thousands of individuals. Plaintiff also seeks statutory damages on behalf of himself and members of the class, and any other available legal or equitable remedies.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. Jurisdiction is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 as Plaintiff alleges violations of a federal statute. Jurisdiction is also proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1332(d)(2) because Plaintiff alleges a national class, which will result in at least one class member belonging to a different state than that of Defendant.

Plaintiff seeks up to $1,500.00 (one-thousand-five-hundred dollars) in damages for each call in violation of the TCPA, which, when aggregated among a proposed class numbering in the tens of thousands, or more, exceeds the $5,000,000.00 (five-million dollars) threshold for federal court jurisdiction under the Class Action Fairness Act (“CAFA”). Therefore, both the elements of diversity jurisdiction and CAFA jurisdiction are present.

6. Venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because Defendant is deemed to reside in any judicial district in which it is subject to the court’s personal jurisdiction, and because Defendant provides and markets its services within this district thereby establishing sufficient contacts to subject it to personal jurisdiction. Further, Defendant’s tortious conduct against Plaintiff occurred within the State of Florida and, on information and belief, Defendant has sent the same text messages complained of by Plaintiff to other individuals within this judicial district, such that some of Defendant’s acts in making such calls have occurred within this district, subjecting Defendant to jurisdiction in the State of Florida.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff is a natural person who, at all times relevant to this action, was a resident of Broward County, Florida.

8. Defendant is a Tennessee corporation whose principal place of business is located in Nashville, Tennessee. Defendant directs, markets, and provides its business activities throughout the State of Florida.

9. Unless otherwise indicated, the use of Defendant’s name in this Complaint includes all agents, employees, officers, members, directors, heirs, successors, assigns, principals, trustees, sureties, subrogees, representatives, vendors, and insurers of Defendant.

FACTS

10. On or about July 12, 2023, Defendant sent or caused to be sent to Plaintiff a telemarketing text message to Plaintiff's cellular telephone number ending in 6952 (the "6952 Number"). The message included the following opt-out instruction: "Text STOP to opt out."

11. On July 12, 2023, Plaintiff responded with the word "Stop" in an attempt to opt-out of any further text message communications with Defendant.

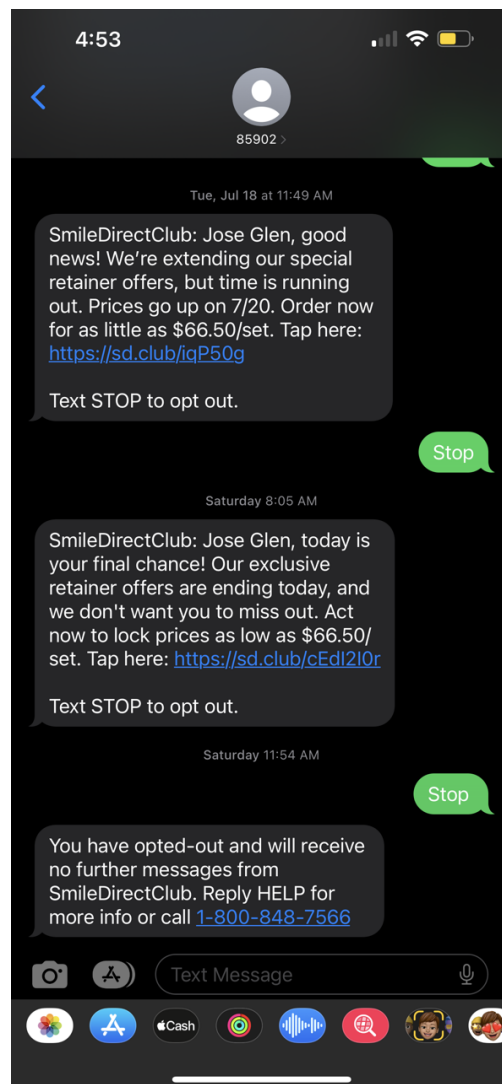

12. Despite Plaintiff's use of Defendant's preferred opt-out language, Defendant ignored Plaintiff's opt-out demand and sent Plaintiff another telemarketing text message on or about July 13, 2023.

13. On July 13, 2023, Plaintiff again responded with the word “Stop” in another attempt to opt-out of any further text message communications with Defendant.

14. Despite Plaintiff’s use of Defendant’s preferred opt-out language, Defendant ignored Plaintiff’s second opt-out demand and sent Plaintiff another telemarketing text message on or about July 18, 2023.

15. On July 18, 2023, Plaintiff again responded with the word “Stop” a third attempt to opt-out of any further text message communications with Defendant.

16. Despite Plaintiff’s use of Defendant’s preferred opt-out language, Defendant ignored Plaintiff’s third opt-out demand and sent Plaintiff another telemarketing text message on or about July 22, 2023:

17. Defendant's text messages were transmitted to Plaintiff's cellular telephone, and within the time frame relevant to this action.

18. Defendant's text messages constitute telemarketing because they encouraged the future purchase or investment in property, goods, or services, i.e., selling Plaintiff Defendant's retainers.

19. The information contained in the text message advertises Defendant's various discounts and promotions, which Defendant sends to promote its business.

20. Plaintiff received sent the subject texts from within this judicial district and, therefore, Defendant's violation of the TCPA occurred within this district. Upon information and belief, Defendant caused other text messages to be sent to individuals residing within this judicial district.

21. Defendant's texts were not made for an emergency purpose or to collect on a debt pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(B).

22. Defendant's calls did not disclose the name of the individual caller pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(4).

23. Defendant's calls did not provide a telephone number or address at which Defendant may be contacted pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(4).

24. At no point in time did Plaintiff provide Defendant with his express written consent to be contacted.

25. Plaintiff has no existing business relationship with Defendant.

26. Plaintiff is the subscriber and sole user of the 6952 Number and is financially responsible for phone service to the 6952 Number.

27. The text messages originated from telephone number 85902, a number which upon information and belief is owned and operated by Defendant or on behalf of Defendant.

28. Defendant's unsolicited text messages caused Plaintiff actual harm, including invasion of his privacy, aggravation, annoyance, intrusion on seclusion, trespass, and conversion. Defendant's text messages also inconvenienced Plaintiff and caused disruption to his daily life.

29. Defendant's unsolicited text messages caused Plaintiff actual harm. Specifically, Plaintiff estimates that he has wasted fifteen to thirty seconds reviewing each of Defendant's unwanted messages. Each time, Plaintiff had to stop what he was doing to either retrieve his phone and/or look down at the phone to review the message.

30. Next, Plaintiff wasted approximately fifteen minutes locating and retaining counsel for this case in order to stop Defendant's unwanted calls. In all, Defendant's violations of the TCPA caused Plaintiff to waste at least fifteen minutes of his time in addressing and attempting to stop Defendant's solicitations.

CLASS ALLEGATIONS

PROPOSED CLASS

31. Plaintiff brings this case as a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, on behalf of himself and all others similarly situated.

32. Plaintiff brings this case on behalf of a Class defined as follows:

Internal Do Not Call Class: All persons within the United States who, within the four years prior to the filing of this Complaint, were sent a text message from Defendant or anyone on Defendant's behalf, to said person's cellular telephone number after making a request to Defendant to not receive future text messages

Seller Identification Class: All persons within the United States who, within the four years prior to the filing of this Complaint, were sent a text message from Defendant or anyone on Defendant's behalf, that did not disclose: (1) the name of the individual caller; or (2) the name of the person or entity on whose behalf the call is being made; or (3) a telephone number or address at which the person or entity may be contacted.

33. Defendant and its employees or agents are excluded from the Class. Plaintiff does not know the number of members in the Class, but believes the Class members number in the several thousands, if not more.

NUMEROSITY

34. Upon information and belief, Defendant has placed violative calls to cellular telephone numbers belonging to thousands of consumers throughout the United States who are registered on the Do Not Call registry, who had already requested to be opted out of further communications, and without including important seller identification information in the messages. The members of the Class, therefore, are believed to be so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

35. The exact number and identities of the Class members are unknown at this time and can only be ascertained through discovery. Identification of the Class members is a matter capable of ministerial determination from Defendant's call records.

COMMON QUESTIONS OF LAW AND FACT

36. There are numerous questions of law and fact common to the Class which predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. Among the questions of law and fact common to the Class are:

- a) Whether Defendant violated 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d);
- b) Whether Defendant adhered to requests by class members to stop sending text messages to their telephone numbers;
- c) Whether Defendant keeps records of text recipients who revoked consent to receive texts;
- d) Whether Defendant has any written policies for maintaining an internal do not call list;
- e) Whether Defendant's conduct was knowing and willful;
- f) Whether Defendant violated the privacy rights of Plaintiff and members of the class;
- g) Whether Defendant is liable for damages, and the amount of such damages; and
- h) Whether Defendant should be enjoined from such conduct in the future.

37. The common questions in this case are capable of having common answers. If Plaintiff's claim that Defendant routinely transmits text messages to telephone numbers assigned to cellular telephone services is accurate, Plaintiff and the Class members will have identical claims capable of being efficiently adjudicated and administered in this case.

TYPICALITY

38. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Class members, as they are all based on the same factual and legal theories.

PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF THE CLASS MEMBERS

39. Plaintiff is a representative who will fully and adequately assert and protect the interests of the Class, and has retained competent counsel. Accordingly, Plaintiff is an adequate representative and will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class.

PROCEEDING VIA CLASS ACTION IS SUPERIOR AND ADVISABLE

40. A class action is superior to all other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of this lawsuit, because individual litigation of the claims of all members of the Class is economically unfeasible and procedurally impracticable. While the aggregate damages sustained by the Class are in the millions of dollars, the individual damages incurred by each member of the Class resulting from Defendant's wrongful conduct are too small to warrant the expense of individual lawsuits. The likelihood of individual Class members prosecuting their own separate claims is remote, and, even if every member of the Class could afford individual litigation, the court system would be unduly burdened by individual litigation of such cases.

41. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk of establishing inconsistent rulings and/or incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant. For example, one court might enjoin Defendant from performing the challenged acts, whereas another may not. Additionally, individual actions may be dispositive of the interests of the Class, although certain class members are not parties to such actions.

COUNT I
Violation of the TCPA 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(2)
(On Behalf of the Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class)

42. Plaintiff repeats and realleges the paragraphs 1 through 41 of this Complaint and incorporates them by reference herein.

43. The TCPA provides that any “person who has received more than one telephone call within any 12-month period by or on behalf of the same entity in violation of the regulations prescribed under this subsection may” bring a private action based on a violation of said regulations, which were promulgated to protect telephone subscribers’ privacy rights to avoid receiving telephone solicitations to which they object. 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

44. Under 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d), “[n]o person or entity shall initiate any call for telemarketing purposes to a residential telephone subscriber unless such person or entity has instituted procedures for maintaining a list of persons who request not to receive telemarketing calls made by or on behalf of that person or entity. The procedures instituted must meet certain minimum standards, including:

(3) Recording, disclosure of do-not-call requests. If a person or entity making a call for telemarketing purposes (or on whose behalf such a call is made) receives a request from a residential telephone subscriber not to receive calls from that person or entity, the person or entity must record the request and place the subscriber’s name, if provided, and telephone number on the do-not call list at the time the request is made. Persons or entities making calls for telemarketing purposes (or on whose behalf such calls are made) must honor a residential subscriber’s do-not-call request within a reasonable time from the date such request is made. This period may not exceed thirty days from the date of such request . . . .

(6) Maintenance of do-not-call lists. A person or entity making calls for telemarketing purposes must maintain a record of a consumer’s request not to receive further telemarketing calls. A do-not-call request must be honored for 5 years from the time the request is made.

47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(3), (6).

45. Under 47 C.F.R § 64.1200(e) the rules set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d) are applicable to any person or entity making telephone solicitations or telemarketing calls to wireless telephone numbers:

(e) The rules set forth in paragraph (c) and (d) of this section are applicable to any person or entity making telephone solicitations or telemarketing calls to wireless telephone numbers to the extent described in the Commission's Report and Order, CG Docket No. 02-278, FCC 03-153, "Rules and Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991

47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(e).

46. Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class members made requests to Defendant not to receive calls from Defendant.

47. Defendant failed to honor Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class members' requests.

48. Upon information and belief, Defendant has not instituted procedures for maintaining a list of persons who request not to receive telemarketing calls made by or on behalf of their behalf, pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d).

49. Because Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class members received more than one text message in a 12-month period made by or on behalf of Defendant in violation of 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d), as described above, Defendant violated 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

50. As a result of Defendant's violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5), Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class members are entitled to an award of $500.00 in statutory damages, for each and every negligent violation, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

51. As a result of Defendant's violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5), Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class members are entitled to an award of $1,500.00 in statutory damages, for each and every knowing and/or willful violation, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

52. Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class members also suffered damages in the form of invasion of privacy.

53. Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class members are also entitled to and seek injunctive relief prohibiting Defendant's illegal conduct in the future, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).

COUNT II
Violations of the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)
(On Behalf of the Plaintiff and the Seller Identification Class)

54. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 41 as is fully set forth herein.

The procedures instituted must meet certain minimum standards, including:

(4) Identification of sellers and telemarketers. A person or entity making a call for telemarketing purposes must provide the called party with the name of the individual caller, the name of the person or entity on whose behalf the call is being made, and a telephone number or address at which the person or entity may be contacted.

47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(4).

56. Under 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(e) the rules set forth in 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d) are applicable to any person or entity making telephone solicitations or telemarketing calls to wireless telephone numbers:

47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(e).

57. Pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(4), Defendant's contact of Plaintiff's cellular phone without disclosing the name of the individual caller constitutes a violation of 47 U.S.C. § 227(c).

58. Pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(d)(4), Defendant's contact of Plaintiff's cellular phone without providing a telephone number or address at which Defendant may be contacted constitutes a violation of 47 U.S.C. § 227(c).

59. As a result of Defendant's violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(c) Plaintiff and the Seller Identification Class members are entitled to an award of $500.00 in statutory damages, for each and every negligent violation, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5)(B).

60. As a result of Defendant's violations of 47 U.S.C. § 227(c), Plaintiff and the Internal Do Not Call Class members are entitled to an award of $1,500.00 in statutory damages, for each and every knowing and/or willful violation, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5)(B).

61. Plaintiff and the Seller Identification Class members are also entitled to and seek injunctive relief prohibiting Defendant's illegal conduct in the future, pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 227(c)(5).
